Purpose

The purpose of this guide is to assist the volunteer Coach Coordinator to carry out their duties at the Club. Please remember, your committee is always here to provide guidance and support. We also welcome your feedback as we work together, as volunteers, to deliver the best experience for our junior players and their families.

This guide is being implemented for the 1st time, and we greatly appreciate any feedback on how we can make it better. Please send to hello@bendigophoenix.org.au.

Introduction

The Coach Coordinator plays a vital role in fostering a sustainable coaching culture within the club. This volunteer position focuses on recruiting, supporting, and developing coaches, especially encouraging junior players to consider coaching pathways and grow into future club leaders.

While the club often faces a shortage of volunteers, the Coach Coordinator's efforts in identifying potential coaches and providing ongoing development opportunities help ensure the club can continue to field teams with qualified and enthusiastic coaches.

This guide outlines your key responsibilities, procedures, and tips to nurture coaching talent and support coaches throughout the season.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Club Policy

- Be familiar with and adhere to Club policies.
- Be familiar with and adhere to the BBA Policies & Guidelines.

Coach Recruitment and Development

- Actively source and encourage current junior players and community members to volunteer as coaches or assistant coaches.
- Promote coaching as a rewarding pathway and provide information on how to get involved.
- Organise coaching clinics, training, and development sessions to build skills and confidence.
- Collaborate with external coaching courses and accreditation programs to facilitate coach education.
- Mentor new or less experienced coaches to support their growth and retention.

Skills Clinics for Players

- Coordinate and support the delivery of skills clinics aimed at improving player fundamentals and engagement.
- Work with coaches, trainers, and volunteers to plan clinic content, schedules, and target age groups.
- Promote skills clinics within the club and through communication channels to maximise participation.
- Gather feedback from players, parents, and coaches to evaluate and improve future clinics.
- Ensure clinics align with club values and player development goals.

Compliance and Records

- Work with the Child Safety Officer to ensure all coaches have up-to-date Working with Children Checks (WWCC) and relevant clearances.
- Maintain records of coach participation, accreditation levels, and training completed.

Communication and Support

- Act as a central point of contact for coaches seeking support, advice, or resources.
- Encourage open communication between coaches, players, families, and the Committee.
- Help resolve coaching challenges or concerns in a timely and supportive manner.

Building Coaching Pathways

- Develop and promote clear coaching pathways within the club, encouraging junior players to transition into coaching roles as they progress.
- Work with club leadership to create succession plans for coaching roles.
- Recognise and celebrate coach achievements to motivate ongoing participation.

REPORTING

The Coach Coordinator should provide regular updates to the Committee to keep everyone informed about coaching development efforts.

This may include:

- Progress on recruiting new coaches and junior player engagement

- Updates on coaching clinics, courses, and accreditation
- Feedback from coaches and families
- Identification of coaching gaps and strategies to address shortages
- Recommendations for coach support resources or initiatives

If unable to attend a Committee meeting, you may send a written report to the Club Secretary or President in advance.

CONCLUSION

The Coach Coordinator's role is crucial to the long-term success and sustainability of Club. By fostering coaching pathways and supporting volunteer coaches, you help create a thriving environment where players, families, and coaches can all flourish.

Thank you for your dedication to developing our club's coaching community. Your leadership and enthusiasm make a lasting impact on the club's culture and future
