SETTING SMART GOALS GUIDE

Setting SMART goals with the players is a fantastic way to focus their growth and development both on and off the court. Here's a brief breakdown of the SMART framework:

- Specific: The goal should be clear and unambiguous, addressing exactly what needs to be accomplished.
- Measurable: You need to be able to track progress and determine when the goal has been achieved.
- Achievable: The goal should be realistic and attainable, considering the resources and time available.
- Relevant: The goal should align with the player's aspirations and your team's values or mission.
- Time-bound: The goal should have a deadline or timeframe for completion.

HOW TO SET SMART GOALS

1. Individual Conversations: Take the time to sit with the player and discuss their current strengths, weaknesses, and aspirations. Help them reflect on their past performance and how they want to grow this season.
2. Create 3 Goals: Encourage the player to think about different aspects of their development—such as physical fitness, technical skills, and teamwork. Set one goal for each area.

SETTING SMART GOALS GUIDE

How to set SMART goals:

1. Skill Development
   - Specific: I want to improve my shooting accuracy.
   - Measurable: I will increase my shooting percentage from 35% to 52%.
   - Achievable: I will practice shooting drills for 30 minutes, 3 times a week.
   - Relevant: Improving my shooting will make me more effective during games.
   - Time-bound: I will reach 65% accuracy by the end of the season.
2. Physical Fitness
   - Specific: I want to improve my endurance and stamina.
   - Measurable: I will be able to run 3 kms without stopping.
   - Achievable: I will run 3 times a week and gradually increase my distance each week.
   - Relevant: Improved stamina will help me keep up with the pace of the game.
   - Time-bound: I will run 3 kms without stopping by mid-season.
3. Team Communication
   - Specific: I want to improve my communication with teammates on the court.
   - Measurable: I will make at least 5 positive, vocal interactions with teammates during each practice and game.
   - Achievable: I will focus on giving clear calls during drills and games.
   - Relevant: Good communication will lead to better teamwork and game execution.
   - Time-bound: I will consistently hit this target by the end of the first month.

STEPS FOR IMPLEMENTATION

1. Discuss The Player's Goals: Make sure players are setting goals that are both challenging and realistic.
2. Follow-Up: Schedule regular check-ins with the player to track progress, reassess goals, and adjust as necessary.
3. Celebrate Progress: Celebrate both small wins and significant improvements to maintain motivation.

By setting SMART goals, you will not only guide the players' development but also foster a sense of ownership and accountability in their growth throughout the season.
